DYNAMITE KILLS EIGHT, WOUNDING ELEVEN BESIDES

Gang of Workmen Warming by Fire Where Explosive Is Thawing Out.

Fragments of Bodies Hurled High in the Air.

MOST OF THEM FOREIGNERS

Chillicothe, O., March 30.—Eight persons were killed by an explosion of dynamite here this morning. Seven were hurt.

A culvert is being built on a railroad and thawing dynamite exploded. The victims were horribly mangled. Seven injured were rushed to a hospital. Most of the victims are foreigners. Four hundred pounds of dynamite exploded.

The men were standing around the fire at the time of the explosion preparatory to going to work. The men were thrown high in the air. Bits of bodies were blown hundreds of yards. The shock was felt for miles around. The accident was near Pride, this county.

J. D. McNamara, general road foreman, was a witness of the accident. He says a negro saw the stick of dynamite alight and tossed it away. It hit a box car and the cap went off.

Loose Leaf Sales.

Tobacco sales at Bohmer's loose leaf warehouse this morning were 18,000 pounds. There were no rejections. The prices ranged from $3.40 to $3.75.

Marriage Today.

Mr. Jefferson S. Elrod and Miss Genevieve Martin, both of this city, were married today at the home of the bride's mother, 1921 South Fourth street, by Magistrate Charles Emery. The bride is a pretty and attractive girl. The couple will live in Paducah.

Weather Man is Fickle.

Haze and seek was played by the weather man yesterday, and nearly all Paducahans sought the fire last night, for there was a decided drop in temperature. The official gauge showed that the temperature dropped to 44 degrees, while the maximum reached was 57. The temperature was safe above freezing, but it was uncomfortable, considering the pleasant weather Paducahans have enjoyed. Opinions were varied on the effect of the cold on the fruit, some farmers claiming that the fruit crop will be curtailed, while others were equally confident that the buds have not been damaged. For tomorrow the weather bureau predicts continued chilly weather with frost tonight.

"SKEET" HEDGES CATCHES ON IN FAST COMPANY.

After a long rest, Alonso Hedges, known as "Skeet," a Paducah baseball twirler, has signed with Fox de Lac, in the Wisconsin State league, and next month will report for duty. Hedges says his salary whip is as strong as ever, and he expects to climb up the ladder again into the big leagues. Hedges began work in the Kitty league, and his rise was rapid, and was signed by the Milwaukee team in the American association. For a while his work was sensational, but his arm weakened and he drifted back to the minors, and for two years has only played an occasional game of ball on the vacant lots. However last summer his arm was stronger, and Hedges could twirl in old time form, but he did not work hard, for fear the muscles might not stand the strain.

Frisco Scandal

San Francisco, March 30.—Detectives who participated in raiding Patrick Calhoun's offices in violation of the court's injunction were hauled into court today to show why they should not be punished for contempt of court. The proceedings are before Supreme Court Judge Murasky.

Trouble at Mines

Jasonville, Ind., March 30.—More trouble between American and Hungarian miners is expected when the foreigners attempt to leave their barricaded sheds. They were given notice to leave the county. Heavily armed American miners lined along the road to see the foreigners leave. Officers arrived at the mines at 10 o'clock today to arrest Hungarians connected with yesterday's shooting. Mine officials prevented the arrests. They fear further trouble.

Crazy Snake, Indian Chief, Ready to Surrender, if He is Assured of Fair Treatment at Captors' Hands

Battle Last Evening in Which One Brave Was Killed and Others Were Dispersed—Little Tiger Among Captured.

Checotah, Okla., March 30.—Crazy Snake is anxious to surrender to a military. He is suffering from a leg wound, which is not serious, according to his own men. Monday night Jack Thompson, a Checotah Indian, with Crazy Snake, came to Sheriff Odum's house with a message of surrender if assured fair play. The officer replied he would be given an impartial trial. The chief, according to the messenger, says the posse began the shooting Saturday evening without warning.

Crazy Snake, according to Thompson, admits being in the house and taking part in the deadly fire Saturday evening when the son of Sheriff Odum, and Edwards and Daum, deputies, were killed.

The courier says the chief's house was fired by soldiers. The sheriff thinks the chief is serious in his overtures for peace.

Will Capture Crazy Snake.

Hoffmeyer, Okla., March 30.—Hoffman, with 100 men, marched east this morning. It is believed Crazy Snake will be captured near Hickory by night. Soldiers captured 11 men this morning.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that Sheriff Party and his son were killed this morning in battle.

Battle Last Evening.

Oklahoma City, March 30.—A detachment of Crazy Snake's band of belligerent Indians were surrounded by deputy sheriffs last evening near Crazy Snake's home, and a lively battle ensued. More than 200 shots were fired and one Indian was killed. Eight Indians were captured and the remainder fled with the deputies in pursuit.

There were about fifteen Indians in a band that had taken refuge in a house. The deputies had tracked them some distance and were informed by a farmer of their location.

Advancing from all sides the posse fired a volley at the house. The Indians rushed out, scattered along the trees and made a valiant defense. The posse, firing all the while, steadily advanced and soon routed the band. None of those captured is seriously injured, but it is known that a number of Indians were hit by the posse's shots.

Divided Into Groups.

Crazy Snake's band apparently has been broken up into numerous small groups. It seemed at nightfall that each was trying to accomplish its own escape without regard for the grand dreams of the chieftain to realize which they were called together Sunday by the smoke of signal fires. All efforts at organized resistance seemed to have been dropped with the sinking of the sun.

Militia Also Divided.

The militiamen seemed well able to cope with this latest phase of the situation; however, which became evident late. They, too, are scattered out into bands. They invaded the hilly and wooded districts of the Creek nation in a determined effort to hunt down the war party. The wisdom of this policy at once became evident, for by 7 o'clock last night they had captured Little Tiger, a sub-chief, and several other Indians. Most of them were heavily armed.

Scores of cowboys and frontiersmen, all expert gun fighters, joined the militiamen in the chase during the day and evening. These men declared that if Crazy Snake was any-

Attorney is Responsible.

St. Paul, March 30.—"A prominent Washington attorney is responsible for the present Indian trouble," said Tams Bixby, of St. Paul, for ten years commissioner of the five Cree tribes. The attorney has agitated Crazy Snake for years.

Indian Agent Starts.

Washington, March 30.—Indian Agent Dana H. Kelse, of Muskogee, Okla., left early today to visit the conflict scene at Hickory Ground.

Illinois Deadlock

Springfield, March 30.—One ballot for senator was taken at noon. There was no change in the situation. Indications are that the battle will continue throughout the week.

The bill to abolish bucket shops was offered in the house today by O'Brien, of Chicago.

Local Clearing House

A meeting began this afternoon at 3 o'clock at which the officers of the seven banks will organize a permanent clearing house association. About 18 months ago the first steps towards the organization of a clearinghouse were taken and G. W. Robertson was elected president and J. C. Utterback secretary of the temporary organization.

BARGE BUILDING PLANT UNDER WAY FOR COAL COMPANY

Before the fleet of barges for the West Kentucky Coal company can be built it will be necessary to erect practically a barge building plant.

The company has a shipment of machinery en route to Paducah now, and at present a force of men is at work clearing off the location of the river bank. The river has been too high for several weeks for work, but now the water is dropping rapidly, and the bank is being made ready, although it will take it days to dry out as it is so muddy that a man cannot walk on it without sinking.

Several saws, a planer and other machinery will be installed on the site and when work is begun, which will be some time in April, it is intended to rush it. Mr. C. M. Riker, manager of the company, this morning stated that the company could use 100 new barges now, and that the management is anxious to have the barges completed and put into use as rapidly as possible.

Advocates Expect to Put Lumber on Free List if They Are Allowed to Vote on Each Schedule Separately

In Senate Elkins, of West Virginia, Denounces New England Senators, For Their Selfishness.

Washington, March 30.—An effort was made by Tawney, of Minnesota, to round up the tariff sentiment of Republican members of the house from western states. Indications are that the general debate will end Thursday. Probably the debate on sections will follow under the five-minute rule.

The Michigan delegation is considering the question of making a united stand against tea and coffee taxes.

Free lumber advocates are confident if a separate vote is secured in the house lumber will be put on the free list in the Payne tariff bill.

Sterling, of Illinois, spoke against free hides in the house today. He declared this provision of the Payne bill is an attack on the farmer.

The Democratic slogan, "Tariff for revenue only," was destroyed by Bates, of Pennsylvania, in the house today. He declared the policy resulted in England's present condition of "mobs unemployed and rock bottom wages."

New England's Power.

Washington, March 30.—Fury on the one hand, disorder, confusion and the destruction of the hitherto conservative and of Republican senators who lead the direct legislation on the other, marked the closing of the session in the upper branch of congress. Where peace and amity presumably had reigned before among such senators as Elkins, Scott, Aldrich, Hale, Lodge and Gallinger, these were torn asunder in 30 minutes' time through the revolt in open senate of Elkins, of West Virginia, against an alleged combination of New England senators to control the tariff in the exclusive interests of their own states.

"New England demands protection for her manufactured articles, but you want and insist that your raw materials, such as coal, hides, lumber and iron, be on the free list," he said. "The hour has come for the south, with her 24,000,000 of people, with the raw materials she is manufacturing at home, instead of sending it to New England, to ask for protection. Three of your members (indicating Dodge, Hale and Aldrich), who are on the finance committee, and who practically all of her life has been devoted to charitable work. While in Paducah Miss Farmer won the friendship of many friends, who will regret to learn of her death.

Mary Farmer.

Paducah friends have just learned of the death of Miss Mary Farmer, 54 years old, former assistant matron of the Home of the Friendless, at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. C. Keese, in Cincinnati. Miss Farmer had been in ill health for many years and was forced to resign her position in Paducah owing to her illness with tuberculosis, which caused her death. She had been associated with Miss Florence Rapier, the matron of the Home of the Friendless, for many years, and practically all of her life has been devoted to charitable work. While in Paducah Miss Farmer won the friendship of many friends, who will regret to learn of her death.

It is a fact," his voice rang.

to its highest pitch, "that neither a western Republican nor a southern Democrat is permitted to have an audience with the sub-committee now holding sessions to appear before it in justice to their constituents. And why? New England does not want them. You

"Mr. President," his voice ringing like that of an ox whip, "I ask that the senate do now proceed to the consideration of executive business," said Lodge.

"You see," replied Senator Elkins, "New England can not keep out of anything."

Instantly the chairman was in a tumult. The confusion was so great that the vice-president constantly rapped for order.

Washington, March 30.—They say that there will be strenuous opposition to the passage of the Payne tariff bill as it now stands. Certain infant industries plead that their existence is imperilled by a paragraph here and there in the bill; and it is known that lobbyists are as thick at the Capitol as bees around a hive in clover time.

Therefore the bill merits careful attention. But as a precautionary measure, it is recommended that the seeker after knowledge provide himself with a dictionary, an encyclopedia, a pronouncing gazetteer, a glossary, and a pharmacopoeia.

Then, when the daily press recounts the desperate struggle on the floor of the house or senate as to the duty on binotropolol, myrobolan, fenugreek, mangold-wurzel, cudbear, malts-bockings, or zafer, the

WILL BE GEORGE.

Belgrade, March 30.—Former Crown Prince George and Prince Alexander, youngest brother, exchanged names today as the result of an edict issued by King Peter. The change is so the name George may remain as the head of the house of Karageorgevitch.

Several saws, a planer and other machinery will be installed on the site and when work is begun, which will be some time in April, it is intended to rush it. Mr. C. M. Riker, manager of the company, this morning stated that the company could use 100 new barges now, and that the management is anxious to have the barges completed and put into use as rapidly as possible.

POLICE FEAR PLOT.

Des Moines, March 30.—The police believe there is a general plot against Catholic priests here. The Rev. Father Romanelli, of the Italian Catholic church, was threatened by two men. The priest seized a revolver and the men ran. Police are trying to connect Andrew Ballantine with the disturbance yesterday and with other attacks.

Washington, March 30.—An effort was made by Tawney, of Minnesota, to round up the tariff sentiment of Republican members of the house from western states. Indications are that the general debate will end Thursday. Probably the debate on sections will follow under the five-minute rule.

THE MONGREL

MAKES BEST PERFORMER, SAYS SHOWMAN.

Ben Austin Says "Cur" is Quickest Study and Best Actor With Gentry Bros.

There are all kinds of dogs around the Gentry Brothers' Famous Shows, which come to Paducah to open their season Saturday, and while most of them are of aristocratic origin and are "tony" to the last degree, there are many in the canine department of the trained animal shows whose family trees have been badly twisted and who emerge from the ancestral forest to receive the classification of "mongrel."

In the opinion of Mr. Ben Austin with the Gentry shows, the "mongrel" or "cur" is more apt to be a "quick study" and a "good performer" than the dog of high degree, and Mr. Austin explains his position in this wise:

"The high bred dog has the stuff in him, all right and under proper conditions will make a good performing dog, but, as a general thing, the dog with a pedigree has led the lazy life ever since he can remember and so have his parents and their parents, until laziness just comes natural. The high bred dog is all right at a bench show, but he doesn't ordinarily make good at a hard day's work."

"Now, the 'mongrel' has had to hustle for the better part of his dog's life. In some cases the eat, sleep and drink rule has applied to him, but generally he has had to get up and scratch if he wanted to eat. He has had to look out for himself, and that has made him bright and active and willing to learn."

"For 'appearances' sake we choose our trained dogs from the canine aristocracy, but such a course spells harder work for us. For my part, if I were going to organize a troupe of trained dogs I would be entirely willing to go to any dog pound and pick up my pupils there. As a matter of fact, we did have a fine dog named 'Spout' which we rescued from the dog pound in Chicago three years ago and who, although he was most apparently a mongrel, became one of the best trained dogs in the troupe. Aristocracy doesn't always mean intelligence or worthiness—in Dogdom, as well as in other walks of life."

"How many kinds of dogs are there? Well, there are Russian wolf hounds, the St. Bernards, the spitzes, collies, cocker spaniels, shepherds, gray hounds, beagle hounds, decker hounds, German poodles, Russian poodles, French poodles, Tost Indian poodles, sky terriers, Scotch terriers, Irish terriers, curly dogs, straight-haired dogs, short-haired dogs, long-haired dogs, thin dogs, fat dogs, short dogs, long dogs, spotted dogs, black dogs, white dogs, brown dogs, brindle dogs, bull dogs, and just dogs—including the well-known and much maligned yellow cur, native of nowhere in particular, found all over the globe, and recipient of my continual respect as you have just noted."

"In the opinion of Mr. Ben Austin with the Gentry shows, the "mongrel" or "cur" is more apt to be a "quick study" and a "good performer" than the dog of high degree, and Mr. Austin explains his position in this wise:

News of Theatres

"Paid in Full."
At the Kentucky tonight will be given Wagenhals and Kemper's great play of present day life in America, by Eugene Walter. "Paid in Full." Breathing strength in every line this play is out of the ordinary. Mr. Walter has taken as his central figures the men and women of everyday America and they are spontaneously wholesome figures. The theme of "Paid in Full" is different, vastly different from the conventional cut and squared play, and its presentation is made in a wholesome, forceful fashion.

The Man of the Hour.

At the Kentucky Wednesday night William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer's production, "The Man of the Hour," will be the attraction. The plot, a brief, concerns a young millionaire who has been refused by his sweetheart because he has "done nothing worthy." He then enters politics and is elected mayor of his city. After assuming the duties of the office he manfully refuses to bow to the politicalboss. One of the first bills brought to him for his signature he do wth a franchise grab and is prompted by the uncle of the girl with whom he is in love. It looks to the newsway as if his refusal would cost him all the friends of his family, but after pursuing the rough road, in the end wins his sweetheart and demonstrates that honesty always pays. The company to be seen here is said to be exceptionally strong, while the production is complete in every detail.

Daily Thought.
Learning is ever in the freshness of youth, even of the old.—Aeschylus.

If Ollie had not been disappointed in Mr. Taft, we would have been.

You can get your premises cleaned cheaply. Just pile the trash where the city wagon can reach it.

Lexington papers will have to quit calling it "anti-expectorating" ordinance, if they wish the kind of people who violate it to understand them.

Elbert Hubbard thinks the trouble with the American people is not graft, but plain pretense. He suggests that we surrender our cards in the Personal Purity League, declare a vacation of the W. C. T. U. and the missionary societies, and try to be honest with ourselves for just one year. We know quite a number of people, who are willing to go with Mr. Hubbard as far as closing down the societies. Not quite so many of them would consent to being honest, though.

A contemporary boasts its dignity in always confining its discussions of things political to measures and leaving the personalities involved in the contest alone. The longer we live and observe, the more we are convinced that there is a large percentage of bungo in political principles (?), and jobbery in measures, while the character of men selected to administer the government is the prime essential to good government. We are good men, and they will give us good laws and enforce them.

CONGRESSIONAL GRAFT.

When the millions of dwellers in the great inland valley of North America demand that congress issue bonds for the improvement of the waterways, congressional leaders declare the country is facing a deficit. When the executive department asks for ships to guard both oceans, the same answer is forthcoming. If they had it do over again, they, no doubt, would pinch the Panama canal project.

Yet, we venture the assertion that congressional graft and waste and extravagance account for the deficit and millions more. To begin with, why should the country lose money every year handling the mails? A business-like contract with the common carriers will cut out a few millions there. Republican and Democratic senators join in squandering millions every year on ship yards, to which a battleship cannot float even at high tide. Ben Tillman has one in South Carolina and a senator from Florida gets one for his support.

We hope that Mr. Taft will evince the same persistent spirit of inquiry that Mr. Roosevelt would have manifested, had a deficit threatened his term; for it is congressional graft that is responsible. Our natural burden is growing heavy and we can't carry any excess in the future.

the city and the planting of trees. It requires only the co-operation of citizens, especially parents, to realize great material benefits to the city, by making it more attractive and more healthful, and thereby more desirable as a residence city. Without this cooperation the mayor's efforts will be in vain.

It would be wise to announce this cleaning up contest in the schools and to send the children home when school is out to broach the proposition to their parents. The plan is simple and feasible. If the children will clean up their own premises and enlist their neighbors and friends in the fight to get every atom of trash off their premises and in a pile, where the city wagon can reach it, credit will be given for each pile to the person designated, and tally will be kept of them. There is no cost attached to the hauling. Isn't it worth while to strive for a prize in the fight against dirt and germs?

It would be a great object lesson to the children and the parents, too, to see what a huge pile of trash can be collected from one yard. The different aspect after the removal of the trash will be a picture that will linger forever in the mind of the child. Isn't it worth your while, parents, to give your children this object lesson in cleanliness?

Then, too, the dirtiest neighborhoods has the advantage in the contest. The bigger the pile of trash the better show the contestant stands. It isn't a contest, in which the more improved residence portions have the advantage.

In the contest for the best improved premises, the one that shows the most work in the way of cleaning up, planting grass and trees, whitewashing, painting and neat repairing, will be the one to win the prize. The fine home and elegantly kept up premises will not have the advantage in this.

What boy cannot sell trees? Thousands can be sold in Paducah next month, if the boys secure agencies for first-class nurseries, and canvass the city well. They must be able to produce certificates from the purchasers that they planted the trees in Paducah, and the number thus specified must tally with freight or express receipts possessed by the contestants, so that there will be no cheating.

The whitewashing contest, like the trash contest, depends upon the enthusiasm with which the contestants start out. If they attend to their own premises and enlist their neighbors in their behalf, they will make it lively.

The contestants, who lay their plans in advance and set to work promptly April 1 and keep it up throughout will win.

Martin-Jonson Wedding.

A marriage which was beautiful and impressive in its simple solemnization was that of Miss Elizabeth Martin and Mr. William Crawford Jonson, Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander Martin, 1109 Jefferson street. It was witnessed by relatives, a limited number of the bride's personal friends, and out-of-town guests.

The house was effectively decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. The double doorways were outlined with the plumes fern. The chandeliers were twined with smilax and the stairway was artistic with the smilax and plumes. In the front parlor an altar of palms and ferns arranged in a pyramid effect made a pretty background for the bridal party.

The maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Martin and the best man, Mr. William Milton Martin, of Birmingham, Ala., preceded the bride and the bridegroom. Miss Virginia Newell played the Mendelssohn wedding march as a bridal processional and rendered an artistic program preceding the entrance. The ceremony was impressively pronounced by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church.

The bride was especially handsome in a charming gown of white chiffon cloth over white silk. It was effectively trimmed with lace and was made princess. The bridal bouquet was of Bride roses with a shower of white hyacinths.

The maid of honor was charmingly girlish in a lingerie frock of white embroidered null. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and pink hyacinths.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin were assisted in receiving the guests in the hall and parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin, Dr. Beverly Martin, of Greenville, and Miss Grace Bohannon, of Greenville.

Mrs. Pat O'Brien and Mr. Arthur Martin welcomed the guests at the head of the stairway.

The dining-room was a pretty effect in white and green. The bride's table had a cover of Cluny lace, outlined with smilax. The center-piece was a handsome green and white electrolier surrounded by ferns, smilax and bride roses. Garlands of white tulip and smilax fell from the vine-hung chandelier to the four corners of the table. The ices and cakes carried out the motif of the wedding colors and each plate was decorated with pink carnations.

Receiving in the dining-room were: Mrs. W. J. Humphrey, Mrs. Marshall Puryear, Mrs. William L. Young, Mrs. W. H. Evans, Miss Mamie O'Brien, Miss Claire Winston.

Frappé was served at a prettily decorated table in an alcove of the hall. Mrs. Clarence Martin, of Greenville, presided here and was assisted by Miss Ethel O'Brien and Miss Myrtle Knight.

The wedding guests register was kept by Miss Belle V. O'Brien and Mr. Arthur Martin.

The wedding gifts made a beautiful collection and consisted of many handsome pieces of silver, china and cut glass.

CHARM THE FAT AWAY.
To reduce by means of exercise or dieting is nothing but torture to the flesh and mortification to the spirit. It is so much simpler to "charm" it away. Of course, I don't mean by "spells" or "incantations" but through the occasional use of this home receipt, viz.:  $\frac{1}{2}$  ounce Marmola,  $\frac{1}{2}$  ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and  $3\frac{1}{2}$  ounces Peppermint Water, which any one can obtain at any drug store for a small sum and mix at home. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. It literally charms the fat away. Takes it off just where you need it off and does it quickly but harmless. Many persons lose as much as a pound a day.

Isn't that "charming" off the fat what you please and still lose a pound a day—without strain, injury or effort?

"Mr. President," he cried passionately, "I know this is not the time or place for a discussion like this, but ask that senatorial courtesy permit me to ask"—then he concluded strongly before he could be stopped—"what is the evidence in support of this preposterous charge?"

"This is all out of order," said the presiding officer after a pause, "but in view of the circumstances I will entertain a motion to suspend the rules."

This motion passing, Horton replied to Langdon.

"Your name is signed to a contract with J. D. Telfer, mayor of Gulf City, Miss., calling for 3,000 shares in the Gulf City Land company, and—"

"A lie, a lie!" screamed Langdon.

"That official," went on Horton coolly, "is now in Washington. He has the contract and will swear to conversations with you and your secretary. His testimony will be corroborated by no less a personage than Congressman Norton of your own district, who says you asked him to conduct part of the negotiations."

"And I might add," cried Horton, "that it is known to more than one member of this honorable body that you had drawn up a minority report in favor of Gulf City because of your anger at the defeat of your plan to take the naval base away from Altona."

Langdon sank into his chair, bewildered, even stunned. There was a conspiracy against him, but how could he prove it? The ground seemed crumbling from under him—not even a straw to grasp. Then the old fighting blood that carried him along in Beau-regard's van tugged at the valves of his heart, revived his spirit, ran through his veins. He leaped to his feet.

A sound as of a scuffle—a body falling heavily—drew all eyes from Langdon to the rear of the main aisle. An assistant sergeant at arms was lying face downward on the carpet. Another was vainly trying to hold back Bud Haines, who, tearing himself free, rushed down to his chief waving a sheet of paper in the senator's eyes.

"Read that," gasped the secretary breathlessly, and he hurried away up a side passageway and out to reach the stairs leading to the press gallery.

Langdon spread the paper before him with difficulty with his trembling hands. Slowly his whirling brain gave him the ability to read. Slowly what appeared to him as a jumbled nothing resolved into orderly lines and words.

"The letter is signed 'Charles Norton.' He read and again stood before the senate, which had regained its usual composure after the fallen sergeant at arms had regaled his feet and rubbed his bruises.

"I do not think there will be any investigation," he said, with decided effort, struggling to down the emotion that choked him. "I ask this house to listen to the following letter:

"Dear Senator Langdon—When you receive this letter I shall be well on my way to take a steamer for Cuba. I write to ask you not to think too harshly of me, for I will always cherish thoughts of the friendship you have shown me.

"Peabody and Stevens have finally proved too much for me. When they got old Telfer to swear to a forged contract and wanted me to forge your name in the land records at Gulf City, I threw up my hands. Their game will always go on, I suppose, but you gave them a shock when you broke up their Altacooa graft scheme. And I'm glad you did. They cast me aside today, probably thinking they could get me again if they needed me.

"I am going on the sugar plantation of a friend, where I can make a new start and forget that I ever went to Washington."

Langdon paused dejectedly. The senate was hushed. The galleries were still. Not even the rustle of a sheet of paper was heard in the reporters' gallery. The Mississippian gazed

SHORT HEARINGKidnaper Taken Back to Jail in Mercer, Pa.Ball Fixed at $25,000, Which it is Sharon, Pa., March 30.—It required but a few minutes for the preliminary hearing of James H. Boyle, charged with the abduction of Willie Whitta. Two questions and answers made up the proceedings.

"What is your name?" asked Justice Gilbert.

"James H. Boyle," was the reply.

"Do you want a hearing on a charge of abduction now?"

"Not at this time," he replied and the hearing was over.

Ball was fixed at $25,000, which it is said Boyle has no chance of securing, and the prisoner was returned to jail at Mercer.

Mrs. Boyle will not be brought here for hearing at all. The statement that she was Helen McDermott is doubted here from the fact that not one of the McDermott family has extended her any aid as far as the public knows, or put in an appearance since her arrest. She has been positively identified by Sharon people as James Boyle's wife, but beyond that her identity is not known here.

It is said that her prosecution is not eagerly desired by Mrs. Whitta, whose wishes are likely to be respected. No results are known of the attempt to locate the alleged accomplices and it looks as though Boyle is to be made to bear the brunt of the punishment for the abduction.

Woman May Not Be Tried.
Mercer, Pa., March 30.—The opinion is spreading among the people of this county that Mrs. Boyle will not be prosecuted, but that she will very soon be entirely eliminated from the case and be allowed to depart. There is said to be no local proof whatever to connect her with the abduction and she absolutely refuses to aid the local authorities in the least.

TRIED TO KILL MR. ROOSEVELT

Steerage Passenger's Attempt Frustrated.

Word Received From Vessel Carrying Former President to Africa for Hunting Trip.

WAS THEN PLACED IN IRONS

Horta, Azores, March 30.—Roosevelt, when the Hamburg stopped a few hours here, expressed indignation at the report of an attempt made on his life by an insane Italian. "I never saw him and heard no communication. I did not know anything about it until the man was put in irons."

Hamburg Reaches Azores.

Horta Faya, Azores, March 30.—The steamer Hamburg, on which former President Roosevelt arrived here left here for Gibraltar by the way of Ponta Del Gada, on the Island of San Miguel.

With the exception of one or two days when the sea was a little rough, the Hamburg had pleasant weather from New York.

Roosevelt has not discussed politics with any of his fellow passengers and he would only talk of the forthcoming expedition into Africa. He promenaded the decks every day.

It was learned that an attempt had been made aboard to assault ex-President Roosevelt, but that it was frustrated and his would-be assailant placed in irons.

Giuseppe Tosti, a steerage passenger on the Hamburg, is the man who threatened ex-President Roosevelt. The incident happened soon after the Hamburg was losing sight of America. Then Tosti broke from his companions in the steerage and started

IF IT DISAPPEARS, IT'S ECZEMA.
How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection is an Inherited Blood Disease or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Gilbert's, or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslan. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslan acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blisters, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itch, scaly scalp and all surface skin afflictions.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

for the upper deck, where Roosevelt was standing with his son, Kermit.

"He has let them take away my child," Tosti is said to have shouted in English. "Now he shall pay for it."

Sailors seized Tosti, quickly mastered him, carried him below and by the captain's orders, put him in irons. The incident, it is stated, is known only to Roosevelt and a few fellow passengers. Tosti, after his imprisonment, refused for four days to eat, crying "Roosevelt is trying to poison me."

The ship's doctors now must taste all food offered to Tosti before he will eat.

BASKETBALL

TEAM WILL RECEIVE BEAUTIFUL LOVING CUP.

Chess, Checker and Whist Club Will Be Given a Trophy By the League.

A handsome engraved silver loving cup will be presented to the Chess, Checker and Whist basketball team for the winning of the pennant in the city basketball league, which closed its season last Friday night. This was decided on last night at a meeting of the captains of the teams, and Frank Davis, president of the league, and Harry Singleton, the secretary. The cup will cost $20 and will be engraved appropriately. The presentation will be a neat ceremony, when Frank Davis will present the cup to Robert Fisher, the captain of the winning team.

It was decided not to give a banquet for the players, but the remaining money in the treasury will be used to refund the contribution and the entrance fees, used to start the league. The first season of the league has been a success, and premature plans were discussed last night for the playing of indoor sports next winter.

And if every mother's son of us made a strenuous effort to reach the top there wouldn't be such a crowd at the bottom.—Chicago News.

ECZEMA VICTIM SAVED AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

Wintergreen Compound Stopped Itch at Once—Disease Soon Disappeared.

After dosing the stomach for years and trying all kinds of alleged cures for eczema, Mr. M. T. Firmin reports a perfect cure. He simply washed the skin with an oil of wintergreen compound, mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc.

Mr. M. T. Firmin, for the last 20 years in the employ of the C. S. Daniels Furniture Co., of Wichita, Kan., writes:

"Eczema first appeared on my body when I was a child 8 years of age. For over thirty years I scratched and scratched and doctored, it drove me up as incurable."

"The disease covered my entire body from my scalp to my toes. My doctor and my friends all gave me up as incurable.

"Then I commenced using the D. D. Remedy. The first application stopped the horrible itching and gave me a night's sleep. It gave me strength and hope. I continued growing better."

"I kept up the treatment for months and am now entirely cured, excepting a little roughness on my left ankle."

WILL BE ERECTED IN CITY IN SHORT TIME.

General Council Committee Approves Plans—Others Agree to Aid.

Two more public drinking fountains will be erected in the city at locations where needed. The public improvement committee of the general council held a meeting last night and the proposition of the Daughters of the American Revolution was placed before the committee. Mrs. E. G. Boone, regent of the Daughters of the Revolution, made an agreement with Mr. L. A. Lassiter and Mr. W. J. Hills by which Mr. Lassiter would share the entire expense of the erection of the fountain on Trimble street, while Mr. Hills would pay $15 and the city the remainder for the erection of the fountain at Fifth and Norton streets.

City Engineer Washington was instructed to furnish estimates for placing tiling in the deep gutter on the south side of Oak Grove cemetery. Councilman Young reported that the gutter was dangerous, as the street was narrow. The committee decided not to take up the question of repairing the city jailor's residence until the next meeting.

Present at the meeting last night were: Aldermen Shemill, Lackey, Hank and Councilmen Wilson, Hammon and Wanner.
